Presbyterian Ceremony Unites Norma Kath, Walter L. Babjak

The wedding of Miss Norma Joan Kath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis William Kath of 625 Roosevelt street, to Walter Leon Babjak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Babjak of Irvington, took place Saturday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock in the chapel of the Presbyterian Church. The minister, the Rev. Dr. Robert M. Skinner, performed the ceremony. A reception followed at Far Hills Inn, Somerville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown designed with a Chantilly lace bodice and long sleeves. A handkerchief point skirt of nylon tulle with lace appliques fell in a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion was held by a cap of matching Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Miss Marcia Irene Kath was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a bouffant style gown of turquoise velveteen and nylon net, featuring a pleated bodice, bouffant skirt and a brief velveteen jacket with mandarin collar.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Franklin Schnabel of Plainfield and Miss Carolyn App of Westfield, were attired in identical style gowns in love bird blue velveteen and nylon net.

Gail Heese of Rahway, a cousin of the bride, who was flower girl, wore turquoise color velveteen and nylon net like the maid of honor. All the attendants carried chrysanthemums in shades of pink.

Richard Forster of E. Stroudsburg, Pa., was best man for his brother in law. The ushers were Thomas Devaney of Cedar Grove and Samuel Kowald of Irvington. Following a wedding trip to Lake Placid, N. Y., the couple will reside at 1565 Kemble street, Utica, N. Y. The bride chose for traveling a gray and white faille suit with white accessories and a corsage of red camellias.

Mrs. Babjak was graduated from Westfield High School, attended Montclair State Teachers College, and was graduated from Berkeley Secretarial School. Mr. Babjak, an alumnus of Irvington High School and Seton Hall University, is employed by Bendix Aviation Corp., Utica. He served in the Army during World War II and in Korea.

Wilson Students Sing in Yule Programs

Two Wilson College students from Westfield will take part in the Wilson College Christmas music programs before leaving for their homes for the 16-day Christmas vacation.

They are Carol A. Bunnell of 634 Scotch Plains avenue and Marilyn R. Mumford of 325 East Dudley avenue.

The annual Christmas concerts at Wilson, traditionally a singing college, are one of the highlights of the year. The freshman chorus will present a program of Christmas music Saturday evening, followed by the candlelight vespers Sunday evening by the Choral Club and college choir. On evenings preceding vacation, foreign language groups will carol on campus and at homes in the community.
